

Types of Diseases

Directions: Below, fill in the blank for each statement with the correct term from the word box.

- A single celled microorganism which can exist either as independent organisms or as parasites is called a _____.
- A microorganism smaller than a bacteria, which cannot grow or reproduce apart from a living cell is called a _____.
- An organism that lives in or on and takes its nourishment from another organisms and cannot live independently is called a _____.
- An example of a virus is _____.
- An example of a parasite would be _____.
- An example of a bacterial disease is _____.

Word Box:

Bacteria

Influenza

Malaria

Meningitis

Parasite

Virus